Welcome to “Music at St. John’s”

We are pleased to present the finest musical concerts for our St. John’s Church community and for all of Marin County.

Our historic church has long been treasured for its beauty, warmth and intimacy – a nurturing space for prayer and for sanctuary, for silence and for the word, and for music.

Music helps to bring much needed beauty and harmony into our fractured world. At St. John’s, we are committed to celebrating all that brings life to the world, including the gift of music.

Please join our work in the community by generously supporting Music at St. John’s. Whether for your own enjoyment or as a gift for others, your contribution will help bring great music into our “House of Prayer for All People.”

GOLDEN GATE
BRASS QUINTET
Valentine's Brass!

Sunday, February 14

We welcome back this fabulous brass ensemble for a delightful Valentine's Day concert full of glorious music and their trademark antics.

Cupid with a tuba? Don't miss it!

VOLTI *with the Piedmont
Children's Chorus*

Sunday, February 28

The Bay Area's most adventurously virtuosic chamber chorus sings music that is bold, daring, stimulating, witty, inventive – and thoroughly enjoyable.

Volti – "Singing Without a Net"

TRISKELA
Celtic Harps for St. Patrick's Day
Sunday, March 14

"Erin Go Bragh" with music from the source: Triskela plays fresh interpretations of traditional Irish and Scottish tunes with harps, whistles, drums and singing.

Diana, Shawna and Portia will entrance you ...

DAVE NACHMANOFF
Award-Winning Troubadour
Sunday, April 25

Back by popular demand, the roving wizard touches your soul with his original, perfectly-crafted songs and his amazing orchestra-like guitar mastery. (Dave's appearance is in tandem with a workshop for the youth groups of St. John's Church – watch for details.)

NEW PACIFIC TRIO
Violin, Cello, Piano
Sunday, May 9

Artists in residence at the Univ. of the Pacific's Conservatory of music, the Trio is quickly gaining recognition throughout the US. For us they'll perform Beethoven, Smetana, Piazzola, and a work they commissioned by UC Berkeley composer Cindy Cox.

 Each concert begins at 5:00 p.m. ***
Afterwards, everyone is welcome to linger, meet the musicians, visit with each other, and enjoy sumptuous refreshments.

SCHOLA CANTORUM
SAN FRANCISCO

Renaissance Polyphony Sublime
Sunday, May 23

Led by acclaimed choral director Paul Flight, Schola SF has astounded listeners for over a decade with their purity of sound, impeccable tuning and seamless blend of voices. We'll hear music of the Renaissance masters, and the glorious "Mass in G" by Francis Poulenc.

Cellist
LEANNE ZACHARIAS
and Friends

Sunday, June 20

This supremely gifted Canadian cellist displays her talents in many diverse musical disciplines, and at St. John's she'll present a pastiche of styles, textures, and moods ranging from Bach to the present. She'll be joined by our own Lenore Alford on organ and a special guest singer.
