LITURGY OF THE WORD

Opening Hymn

Sung by all, standing

A Song of Wisdom

Hymn to Joy

1. Wisdom freed a holy people,
blameless, from oppressors' sword,
And withstood, with signs and wonders,
rulers dread, to serve the Lord.
Giving them reward of labors,
led the saints along her way,
She was blaze of stars in darkness
and a shelter through the day.
2. Through the Red Sea safely brought them,
led along the waters steep,
But their enemies she swallowed,
hurled them out from chasm deep.
For salvation, Lord, the righteous praised your Name with one accord,
That the tongues of new-born people
uttered Wisdom's mighty word.

Song of Praise

Paschal Troparion

John Karl Hirten (b. 1956)

The Congregation is invited to stamp their feet when singing the refrain.

Christ is ris - en from the dead, tramp - ling (stomp) down death by death.

Christ is ris - en from the dead, tramp - ling (stomp) down death by death, and on

Collect of the Day

Presider God be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, who in the Paschal mystery established the new covenant of reconciliation: Grant that all who have been reborn into the fellowship of Christ's Body may show forth in their lives what they profess by their faith; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading

Acts 5:27-32

Please be seated.

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

When the temple police had brought the apostles, they had them stand before the council. The high priest questioned them, saying, "We gave you strict orders not to teach in this name, yet here you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and you are determined to bring this man's blood on us." But Peter and the apostles answered, "We must obey God rather than any human authority. The God of our ancestors raised up Jesus, whom you had killed by hanging him on a tree. God exalted him at his right hand as Leader and Savior that he might give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him."

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

Holy Gospel

John 20: 19-31

Priest The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When it was evening on that day, the first of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples were closed for fear of the Judeans, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, “Peace be with you all.” And having said this, Jesus showed them his hands and his side, then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Messiah. Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you all, just as the Living God has sent me, so I send you all.” When Jesus had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit; if you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained.”

But Thomas, one of the twelve who was called Didymus (the Twin) was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, “We have seen the Messiah.” But he said to them, “Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe.”

And within eight days his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, though the doors were shut, and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you all.” Then he said to Thomas, “Put your finger here and look at my hands. Bring your hand and put it in my side and do not doubt, rather believe.” Thomas answered him, saying, “My Savior and my God!” Jesus said to him, “Was it because you have seen me that you believed? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet believe.”

Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written that you may come to believe Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name.

Priest The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Rev. James S. Ward

Please be seated.

Amen.

O filii et filiae

Sung by all, seated.

Antiphon

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

1. O sons and daughters, let us sing!
The King of heaven, the glorious King,
o'er death and hell rose triumphing. Alleluia!
2. That night the apostles met in fear;
amidst them came their Lord most dear,
and said, "My peace be on all here." Alleluia!
3. When Thomas first the tidings heard,
how they had seen the risen Lord,
he doubted the disciples' word. Alleluia!
4. "My pierced side, O Thomas, see;
my hands, my feet, I show to thee;
not faithless, but believing be." Alleluia!
5. No longer Thomas then denied,
he saw the feet, the hands, the side;
"Thou art my Lord and God," he cried. Alleluia!
6. How blest are they who have not seen,
and yet whose faith has constant been,
for they eternal life shall win. Alleluia!

ANNOUNCEMENTS

St. Vincent de Paul Bagged Meals: Today Please lend a helping hand in the parish hall during coffee hour this Sunday as we work together to prepare bagged meals for SVdP. Everything needed will be supplied.

A Note from Leslie Limpert, Head of the Altar Guild I hope that you enjoyed the beauty of the floral decorations this Easter weekend! The members of the Altar Guild experienced great joy seeing the excitement of the congregation as it walked into the church. Every year the Altar Guild lovingly prepares the church for Holy Week, including Palm Sunday, Easter Vigil and three Easter Day services. The Altar Guild is funded solely by donations and is not a part of the church's annual operating budget. Its work includes not only supplying the altar flowers but also the wine, candles, maintenance of Eucharistic implements, candelabra, clerical robes and vestments and repair of linens. Please consider making a donation to the Altar Flower fund in remembrance of a loved one or in thanksgiving or celebration of a special occasion. Donations can be made online here. Please note that altar flower donations must be received by the church office no later than the Tuesday before a specific Sunday for inclusion in the bulletin.

A Pastoral Note St. John's grieves the tremendous loss in last weekend's car accident involving students from Archie Williams High School. The clergy are available for pastoral counseling.

Music Notes The Second Sunday of Easter is known in liturgical circles as "Low Sunday." The origin of the name is not known, but it could be that it is meant to distinguish today from Easter Day, "Low" Sunday being the opposite of the "highest" day of the year, Easter Day. It also has other liturgical names, such as Domenica in albis depositis, which roughly translates to "Sunday when white robes are cast aside," referring to the newly baptized, who traditionally would wear white robes before their baptisms after which, as full-fledged Christians, the robes are cast aside. Another name is Pasche clausum, which refers to the close of the Easter Octave (eight days), and Domenica Quasimodo, from the opening rite (or Introit) " "Quasi modo geniti infantes, rationabile, sine dolo lac concupiscite," which translates to (again roughly) "Like newborn babies [you should] desire the milk of reason without guile" (1 Peter 2.2). But "Low Sunday" is easily the most convenient designation!

The word "troparion" comes from the Greek tropos meaning a "way" or a "manner." Tropos is also the basis of our modern English word "trope," which could be taken to mean something that is predictable or thematic. In the Greek Orthodox tradition, a troparion is any sort of refrain or short hymn which is sung. The "Paschal Troparion" is an ancient text which is sung at Easter in the orthodox tradition. The idea of "stomping" at the Troparion is not a traditional practice, but is done in some contemporary communities, like St. John's.

The text "O filii et filiae" (O sons and daughters) dates from the latter part of the Middle Ages and is attributed to either a French Franciscan Friar named Jean Tisserand, or a Dominican bishop named Jehan Tisserand. The original title was "L'aléluya du jour des Pasques." It was unlikely to have been used in the liturgy at the time, as it is more of a devotional Easter carol. It became known in its English form in the mid 1700's, appearing in prayer books. The tune is of French origin, probably from the mid 1600's, and there has been some debate as to whether it was originally sung in a chant-like style or a more rhythmic folk style.
