LITURGY OF THE WORD

Hymn 287-Sts. 1-4

For all the saints

Sine Nomine

Sung by all, standing.

- 1. For all the saints, who from their labors rest, who thee by faith before the world confessed,
thy Name, O Jesus, be forever blessed.
Alleluia, Alleluia!
- 2. Thou wast their rock, their fortress and their might;
thou, Lord, their Captain in the well-fought fight;
thou, in the darkness drear, the one true Light.
Alleluia, Alleluia!
- 3. O may thy soldiers, faithful, true, and bold, fight as the saints who nobly fought of old,
and win, with them, the victor's crown of gold.
Alleluia, Alleluia!
- 4. O blest communion, fellowship divine!
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine
yet all are one in thee, for all are thine.
Alleluia, Alleluia!

— William Walsham How (1823-1897)

Opening Acclamation

Presider Blessed be the one, holy, and living God.

People Glory to God for ever and ever.

Presider and People

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Song of Praise

Congregational Mass

John Lee (1908-1990)

Fauxbordon Verses by JKH

Choir: Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father. Lord God, Lamb of God.

Choir: you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer.

Choir: with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen

Collect of the Day

Presider God be with you.
People And also with you.
Presider Let us pray.

Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: Give us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those ineffable joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

First Reading

1 John 3:1-3

Please be seated.

A reading from the Letter of John

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 34:1-10,22

Plainsong

All repeat the refrain after the cantor the first time.

Those who seek our God lack no-thing that is good.

- 1 I will bless God at all times; *
and praise shall ever be in my mouth.
- 2 I will glory in the Most High; *
let the humble hear and rejoice.
- 3 Proclaim with me the greatness of God; *
let us exalt God's Name together.
- 4 I sought, and God answered me *
and delivered me out of all my terror.
- 5 Look upon the Most High and be radiant, *
and let not your faces be ashamed.
- 6 I called in my affliction and God heard me *
and saved me from all my troubles.
- 7 The angels encompass those who fear God, *
and God will deliver them.

—REFRAIN

—REFRAIN

- 8 Taste and see that God is good; *
happy are they who trust in the Most High!
- 9 Fear the Most High, you that are God's saints, *
for those who fear God lack nothing. —REFRAIN
- 10 The young lions lack and suffer hunger, *
but those who seek God lack nothing that is good.
- 22 O God, you will ransom the life of your servants, *
and none will be punished who trust in you. —REFRAIN

Gospel Acclamation

Shepherds' Alleluia

John Karl Hirten

All repeat refrain after the choir each time.

The choir sings a verse, then all sing refrain.

Holy Gospel

Matthew 5:1-12

Priest The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

"Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

"Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

"Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

"Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

"Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

"Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

"Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

"Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you."

Priest The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

A moment of silent reflection follows the Sermon.

RENEWAL OF BAPTISMAL VOWS

Please stand.

Priest Do you reaffirm your renunciation of evil and renew your commitment to Jesus Christ?

People I do.

Priest Do you believe in God the Father?
People I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Priest Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?
People I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

Priest Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?

People I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting.

Priest Will you continue in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of the bread, and in the prayers?

People I will, with God's help.

Priest Will you persevere in resisting evil, and, whenever you fall into sin, repent and return to the Lord?

People I will, with God's help.

Priest Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ?

People I will, with God's help.

Priest Will you cherish the wondrous works of God, and protect the beauty and integrity of all creation?

People I will, with God's help.

Priest Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving your neighbor as yourself?

People I will, with God's help.

Priest Will you strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of every human being?

People I will, with God's help.

Priest

May Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has given us a new birth by water and the Holy Spirit, and bestowed upon us the forgiveness of sins, keep us in eternal life by his grace, in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

Asperges

The presider blesses the people with Holy Water as a sign of our renewed baptismal vows.

Peace

The Ministers and the People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

HOLY COMMUNION

Offertory & Collection

The ushers take a collection during the offertory anthem. We rely on the financial contributions of members and visitors and ask for your generous support. Ways of giving to St. John's are listed on page 2 of the bulletin.

Offertory Music

Sung by the choir

O Quanta Qualia

Healey Willan

(1880-1968)

O what their joy and their glory must be,
Those endless sabbaths the blessed ones see!
Crown for the valiant, to weary ones rest;
God shall be all, and in all ever blest.

Truly, "Jerusalem" name we that shore,
'Vision of Peace,' that brings joy evermore!
Wish and fulfillment can severed be ne'er,
Nor the thing prayed for come short of the prayer.

There, where no troubles distraction can bring,
 We the sweet anthems of Sion shall sing,
 While for thy grace, Lord, their voices of praise
 Thy blessed people eternally raise.

Low before him with our praises we fall,
 Of whom, and in whom, and through whom are all;
 Of whom, the Father; and in whom, the Son;
 through whom, the Spirit, with them ever One. Amen.

— John Mason Neale (1818-1866),
 from a Latin poem by Peter Abelard (1079-1142)

The Doxology

Old Hundredth

The people stand to sing the Doxology while the collection is presented at the altar.

Praise God, from whom all bless - ings flow; praise
 God, all crea tures here be - low; praise God a - bove, ye heaven - ly host: praise Fa - ther, Son and Ho - ly Ghost.

Great Thanksgiving

The people remain standing.

Presider	God be with you.
People	And also with you.
Presider	Lift up your hearts.
People	We lift them to the Lord.
Presider	Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People	It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The Presider continues with the Eucharistic Prayer.

It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy. You have filled us and all creation with your blessing and fed us with your constant love; you have redeemed us in Jesus Christ and knit us into one body. Through your Spirit you replenish us and call us to fullness of life. Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord,

God of pow - er and might,

heav - en and earth are full of your glo - ry.

Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Bless ed is the one who comes in the name of our God.

Ho - san - na in the high - est.

from MISSA SIMPLEX by John Karl Hirten.

©1995 by John Karl Hirten. All rights reserved.

The Presider continues with the prayer.

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace. But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love.

Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people. Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation.

Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

People Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ's Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with Most Holy Mary, the Godbearer, Blessed John and all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever. AMEN.

Lord's Prayer

You are invited to raise your hands in prayer and blessing as we pray.

And now as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say:

Presider and People

Our Father, who art in heaven,

hallowed be thy Name,

thy kingdom come,

thy will be done,

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,

and the power, and the glory,

for ever and ever. Amen.

Breaking of the Bread (S-152)

Ambrosian Chant, adapt. Mason Martens
(1933-1991)

Choir Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

All

Presider Holy things for holy people.

Administration of Communion

To receive communion please come forward and receive a piece of the consecrated bread from the priest. If you need a gluten free wafer please indicate that to the minister. If you would like to receive the common cup, please help guide the chalice so you may drink from it. If you prefer not to receive communion, you are welcome to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your preference by crossing your arms over your chest.

Communion

Sung by the choir

O Taste and See
Ariana Hiscott, soprano solo

Ralph Vaughan Williams
(1872-1958)

O taste and see how gracious the Lord is.
Blessed is the one that trusteth in him.

Shall We Gather at the River Robert Lowry (1826-1899)
Sung by the St. John's Choristers

- 1 Shall we gather at the river
Where bright angel feet have trod,
With its crystal tide forever
Flowing by the throne of God?

Refrain: Yes, we'll gather at the river,
The beautiful, the beautiful river,
Gather with the saints at the river,
That flows by the throne of God.

- 2 Soon we'll reach the shining river,
Soon our pilgrimage will cease.
Soon our happy hearts will quiver
With the melody of peace. — Refrain

Postcommunion Prayer Please stand.

Presider Let us pray.

Presider and People

God of abundance,

you have fed us

with the bread of life and cup of salvation;

you have united us

with Christ and one another;

and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth.

Now send us forth

in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever

in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

Blessing

The presider offers God's blessing.

Birthdays, Anniversaries and Occasions of Thanksgiving

All those celebrating birthdays, anniversaries and occasions of thanksgiving are invited to come forward.

Today, tomorrow and always we rejoice in the hands of God.

May God's powerful hands support you.

May God's guiding hands lead you.

May God's loving hands enfold you.

We rejoice in the hands of God. Amen.

Hymn 618

Ye watchers and ye holy ones

Lasst uns erfreuen

Sung by all, standing.

- 1 Ye watchers and ye holy ones,
bright seraphs, cherubim, and thrones,
raise the glad strain, Alleluia!
Cry out, dominions, principedoms, powers,
virtues, archangels, angels' choirs,
Alleluia! alleluia! alleluia!
Alleluia! alleluia!
- 2 O higher than the cherubim,
more glorious than the seraphim,
lead their praises, Alleluia! — continued on p. 14
Thou bearer of the eternal Word,
most gracious, magnify the Lord, Alleluia!, etc.

3 Respond, ye souls in endless rest,
ye patriarchs and prophets blest,
Alleluia, alleluia!
Ye holy twelve, ye martyrs strong,
all saints triumphant, raise the song, Alleluia!, etc.

4 O friends, in gladness let us sing,
supernal anthems echoing,
Alleluia, alleluia!
To God the Father, God the Son,
and God the Spirit, Three in One, Alleluia!, etc.

— John Athelstan Laurie Riley (1858-1945)

Dismissal

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord! Alleluia. Alleluia.

People

Thanks be to God! Alleluia. Alleluia.

* Members of the congregation are always welcome to watch the organist play the postlude. Walk up the ramp behind the organ console. Parents with children are especially welcome, but please wait until the end to converse! ****

Join us for coffee and fellowship In our parish hall following the service. Coffee and refreshments on the house.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Calendar Note: Please allow extra time for parking your car when coming to services next Sunday, November 8. Ross Recreation has scheduled a community running event from 9am -12pm.

Rector Search Update: Thank you to everyone who took part in our parish survey. Of the 494 parishioners invited, 150 responded—equivalent to 74% of our average weekly worship attendance. That excellent response gives us a rich and reliable picture of St. John's today. This week, the search committee met by Zoom with Holy Cow! Consulting for a detailed debriefing on the results. Roughly 72% of respondents are clearly satisfied with parish life, and the consultants noted that this positions St. John's well for growth and wider impact. Looking ahead, members named four top goals: reaching new people and welcoming them into the life of the church, attracting families with children and youth, strengthening pastoral care for people in times of need, and deepening our generosity in support of the church's ministry. The survey also identified inclusiveness and advocacy as particular strengths.

As our consultants reminded us, survey data is not the end of a conversation but the beginning. A one- or two-page summary of the results will be shared with the congregation, and the full report will be available in the church office for anyone who would like to review it. We are now moving into the next phase of the search: small-group listening sessions, which began this week. These conversations will help us test and deepen what the survey revealed as we prepare to call our next rector.

Search Committee members will be reaching out to active groups within the parish (e.g., Dinner Church, Altar Guild and Usher volunteers) as well as hosting congregation-wide listening sessions on Sunday, November 8, and Sunday, November 15. The sessions will take place after each of the three Sunday worship services, in the Youth Room after the 8am and in the Parish Hall after the 9 and 10am. We hope to provide multiple opportunities for you to take part in these sessions so that everyone's voice can be heard.

Choral Evensong: Today at 4 Come join the St. John's Choir for Choral Evensong on Sunday, November 1, at 4pm. This beautiful, meditative, service is based on traditional practice dating back to the 16th Century. The service will include music of Stephen Paulus, John Karl Hirten and Joanna Forbes L'Estrange.

Prayers for Our Country: Today "He went to a quiet place, and there he prayed" (Mark 1:35). Join us as we pray for fair and peaceful elections, and for healing and justice in the US and the world. Sundays, Nov 1, Nov 8, in the Youth Room right after the 10am service.

Dinner Church: November 10 All are invited to supper and a discussion for session 3 of our fall series, Spiritual Fitness Training 2.0. This time we'll be exploring how to wake our spiritual brains. We gather in the parish hall on Tuesday, November 10 from 6-8pm. We ask for a $10 donation per person to cover the cost of groceries. The final session of the series will be December 8. Please RSVP online by Friday, November 6. Go to www.stjohnsross.org

Annual Hat Drive Deadline: November 22 The San Rafael Street Chaplaincy will distribute the hats at their Thanksgiving event. You're welcome to include small gifts, toiletries, or cards along with your donation. If you'd like to participate or need more details, please contact Leslie Limpert via email . Please drop off to the church office lobby. You can help by purchasing hats to donate, donating gloves or socks, or knitting or crocheting hats.

Save the Date: Advent Quiet Day Take a spiritual break from the hectic holidays with a day of quiet on Saturday, December 6, 9am -2pm at St. Columba's, Inverness. Please contact parishioner Ann Doyle to sign-up.

Women's Bible Discussion: Mondays This Monday, November 2, we will be pausing our exploration of Galatians. Instead, a member of the Rector Search Committee will be joining us to lead us through a Listening Session. We meet weekly on zoom, 7:30-8:30pm. Please contact Rev. Heather for more information.

Bible Study: Wednesdays AND Thursdays In November and December, we will be exploring what the Bible says about how we welcome new Christians into our community through baptism, and the Biblical roots of the promises we make as individuals and as a church when we make and reaffirm our baptismal vows. We will be meeting at our usual Wednesday 1pm time in the Youth Room, and if that time does not work for you, please join us instead at 6:30pm on Thursday in the Youth Room. The material will be the same for the two classes each week. Please contact Ethan Dettmer if you want to receive the materials.

Christian Classics Lite: Thursdays All are invited to participate in the second season of our weekly reading and discussion program facilitated by parishioner David Kinney and Rev. Heather. This session's focus is the spiritual disciplines. The group meets in the Youth Room on Thursdays, 11am-noon. On October 29 we will discuss "Submission" and on November 5 we will discuss "Service." Email Rev. Heather or David Kinney for more information.

Sunday School @ 10AM. We welcome all children from preschool through 5th grade to our Sunday School. Throughout the program year, Class Hope (preschool – 2nd grade) will learn Sacred Stories through the Godly Play curriculum, and Class Faith (3rd–5th grade) will explore lessons connected to the Sunday liturgy. This Sunday, all children will meet for a combined class in the Fireside Room, before joining their parents in the church for Holy Communion.

Sunday School Volunteers Needed! We're looking for volunteers to help nurture and support our children as they grow in faith. Whether you can teach regularly or simply lend a hand from time to time, your help would be greatly appreciated. If you're interested in volunteering, please email the Children's Ministry Director.

Sunday Morning Youth Group On most Sundays, all youth (grades 6th-12th) are invited to meet in the Youth Room at 10am. (Youth are always welcome in church, too!) For more information, please contact Rev. Heather.

Youth Confirmation Class Youth Confirmation Class begins in November (Sundays, 11:30am). We meet a couple of times a month to explore together what it means to live a life of faith in the Episcopal Church, culminating in Diocesan Confirmations at Grace Cathedral on June 5. Youth of all ages are invited (many choose to take the class while in 8th grade). For more information or to sign up, please contact Rev. Heather.

Music Notes: "For all the saints" was written by the Anglican Bishop of Wakefield, William Walsham How, as a processional hymn. The original hymn contains 11 stanzas, and the opening line was changed shortly after publication by How himself from "For all thy saints" to "For all the saints." It had been paired with a different tune until its publication in The English Hymnal of 1906 with a tune by Ralph Vaughan Williams called Sine nomine (which means "without name" in Latin), one of the great tunes of the 20th Century.

Peter Abelard is considered one of the most important and influential philosophers of the Middle Ages, but he was also a poet and musician. Much of his poetry had been lost to time, although he and his wife (Héloïse d'Argenteuil, with whom he had a legendary romance) often referred to them in their letters to each other. O quanta qualia is one of ninety-seven hymns which were discovered in the Royal Library in Brussels seven hundred years after his death. J. M. Neale translated dozens of hymns by various composers from Latin into memorable English texts.

Anyone who wants a short course on the heavenly order should simply have a quick look at hymn 618, "Ye watchers and ye holy ones." The first stanza names the nine orders of angels, which are divided into three groups according to their hierarchy: I. Seraphim, Cherubim, Thrones, II. Dominions, Virtues, Powers, and III. Principalities, Archangels, Angels. These classifications were originally put forward by Pseudo-Dionysius the Areopagite around the 5th century in his book The Celestial Hierarchy.

In the second stanza of the hymn, we have a direct paraphrase of the Theotokion, Orthodox hymn to the Mother of God, the "bearer of the eternal Word." The Theotokion was a hymn sung at the end of the liturgy of the hours and dates back to the third century.

The third stanza calls upon the saints at rest, patriarchs, prophets, the Apostles and martyrs, while the final stanza includes all the saints on earth (us?) to join in the festive song.
