LITURGY OF THE WORD

Processional Hymn 436 Lift up your heads, ye mighty gates Truro Sung by all, standing.

1 Lift up your heads, ye mighty gates;
behold, the King of glory waits!
the King of kings is drawing near;
the Savior of the world is here.

2 O blest the land, the city blest,
where Christ the ruler is confessed!
O happy hearts and happy homes to whom this King of triumph comes!

3 Fling wide the portals of your heart;
make it a temple, set apart from earthly use for heaven's employ, adorned with prayer and love and joy.

4 Redeemer come! I open wide my heart to thee: here, Lord, abide!
Let me thy inner presence feel:
thy grace and love in me reveal.

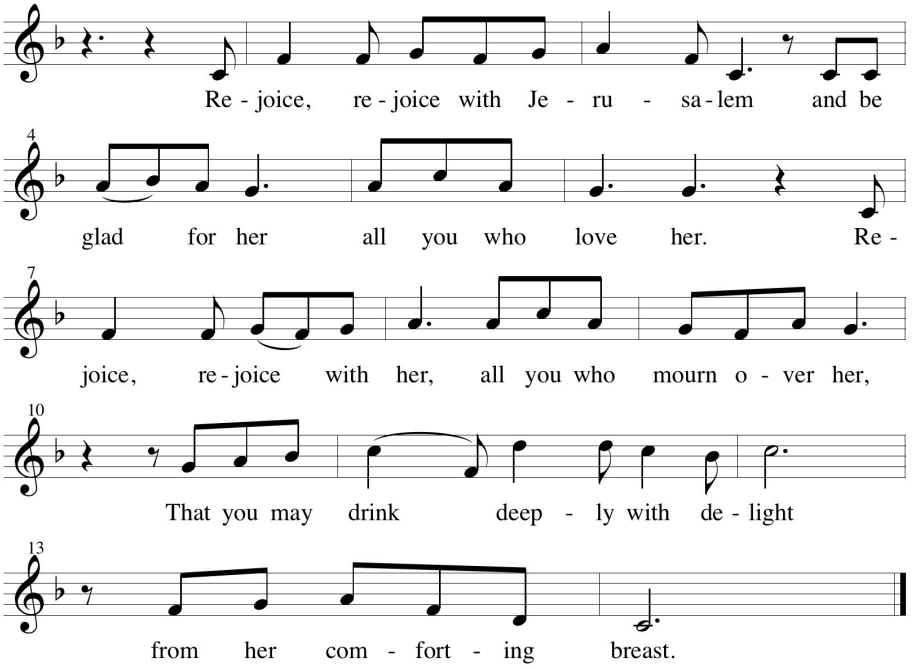

5 So come, my Sovereign; enter in!
Let new and nobler life begin;
thy Holy Spirit guide us on,
until the glorious crown be won.

—Georg Weissel (1590-1635); tr. Catherine Winkworth (1827-1878)

Opening Acclamation
Presider Blessed be the one, holy, and living God.
People Glory to God for ever and ever.

Presider and People
Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Song of Praise A Song of Jerusalem Our Mother John Karl Hirten (b. 1956)
Repeat refrain after the choir the first time.

Choir:
1. "I will extend peace like a river, the wealth of nations like an overflowing stream.
You shall nurse and be carried on her arm, and you shall nestle in her lap." — Refrain

2. "As a mother comforts her child, so I will comfort you;
you shall be comforted in Jerusalem.
You shall see, and your heart shall rejoice, you shall flourish like the grass of the fields." — Refrain

Collect of the Day
Presider God be with you.
People And also with you.
Presider Let us pray.
O God, whose blessed Son came into the world that he might destroy the works of the devil and make us children of God and heirs of eternal life: Grant that, having this hope, we may purify ourselves as he is pure; that, when he comes again with power and great glory, we may be made like him in his eternal and glorious kingdom; where he lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading Please be seated. Wisdom 6:12-16

A Reading from the Book of Wisdom.

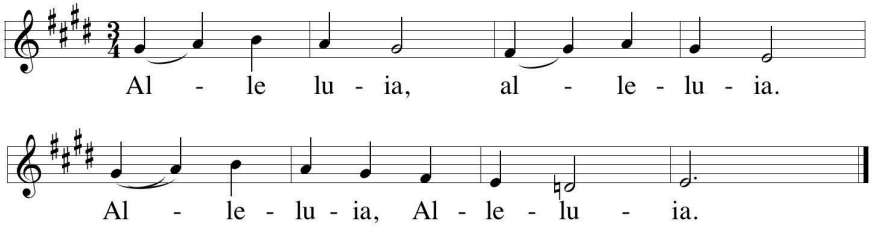

Wisdom is radiant and unfading,
and she is easily discerned by those who love her,
and is found by those who seek her.
She hastens to make herself known to those who desire her.
One who rises early to seek her will have no difficulty, for she will be found sitting at the gate.
To fix one's thought on her is perfect understanding, and one who is vigilant on her account will soon be free from care, because she goes about seeking those worthy of her,
and she graciously appears to them in their paths,
and meets them in every thought.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
People Thanks be to God.

Wisdom of Solomon 6:17-20 Call and Response
The congregation repeats each line after the cantor.

The beginning of wisdom / is the most sincere desire for instruction, / and concern for instruction is love of her, / and love of her is the keeping of her laws, / and giving heed to her laws is assurance of immortality, / and immortality brings one near to God; /
so the desire for wisdom leads to a kingdom. /

Please stand.
Gospel Acclamation Shepherds' Alleluia John Karl Hirten
All repeat refrain after the choir each time.

The choir sings a verse, then all sing refrain.

Holy Gospel Matthew 25:1-13

Priest The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "Then the kingdom of heaven will be like this. Ten bridesmaids took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish, and five were wise. When the foolish took their lamps, they took no oil with them; but the wise took flasks of oil with their lamps. As the bridegroom was delayed, all of them became drowsy and slept. But at midnight there was a shout, 'Look! Here is the bridegroom! Come out to meet him.' Then all those bridesmaids got up and trimmed their lamps. The foolish said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.' But the wise replied, 'No! there will not be enough for you and for us; you had better go to the dealers and buy some for yourselves.' And while they went to buy it, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went with him into the wedding banquet; and the door was shut. Later the other bridesmaids came also, saying, 'Lord, lord, open to us.' But he replied, 'Truly I tell you, I do not know you.' Keep awake therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour."

Priest The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

The Prayers of the People

Grant, All Loving God, that all who confess your Name may be united in your truth, live together in your love, and reveal your glory in the world. God of mercy: Hear our prayer.

Guide the people of this land, and of all the nations, in the ways of justice and peace; that we may honor one another and serve the common good. God of love: Hear our prayer.

Give us all a reverence for the earth as your own creation, that we may use its resources rightly in the service of others and to your honor and glory. God of mercy: Hear our prayer.

Bless all whose lives are closely linked with ours, and grant that we may serve Christ in them, and love one another as Christ loves us. God of love: Hear our prayer.

Let us offer our thanksgivings for God's goodness in our lives and in the world. God of mercy: Hear our prayer.

Comfort and heal all those who suffer in body, mind, or spirit; especially...; give them courage and hope in their troubles, and bring them the joy of your salvation. We offer the prayers sent by text…; God of love: Hear our prayer.

We commend to your mercy all who have died, that your will for them may be fulfilled; and we pray that we may share with all your saints in your eternal kingdom. God of mercy: Hear our prayer.

We pray to you also for the forgiveness of our sins.
A moment of silence is kept.

Minister and People
God of all mercy,
we confess that we have sinned against you,
opposing your will in our lives.
We have denied your goodness in each other,
in ourselves, and in the world you have created.
We repent of the evil that enslaves us,
the evil we have done,
and the evil done on our behalf.
Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

Absolution
The presider offers God's absolution.
Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Peace
The Ministers and the People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

HOLY COMMUNION

Offertory & Collection
The ushers take a collection during the offertory anthem. We rely on the financial contributions of members and visitors and ask for your generous support. Ways of giving to St. John's are listed on page 2 of the bulletin.

Offertory Music My Lord, what a morning Spiritual Sung by the Choir.

Refrain
My Lord, what a morning, O my Lord, what a morning,
When the stars begin to fall.

You'll hear the trumpet sound, To wake the nations underground,
Looking to my God's right hand, When the stars begin to fall — Refrain

You'll hear the sinner mourn, To wake the nations underground,
Looking to my God's right hand, When the stars begin to fall — Refrain

You'll hear the Christian shout, To wake the nations underground,
Looking to my God's right hand, When the stars begin to fall — Refrain

The Doxology Old Hundredth
The people stand to sing the Doxology while the collection is presented at the altar.

Great Thanksgiving
The people remain standing.

Presider	God be with you.
People	And also with you.
Presider	Lift up your hearts.
People	We lift them to the Lord.
Presider	Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People	It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The Presider continues with the Eucharistic Prayer.
It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy. You have filled us and all creation with your blessing and fed us with your constant love; you have redeemed us in Jesus Christ and knit us into one body. Through your Spirit you replenish us and call us to fullness of life. Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing:

Sanctus Missa Simplex John Karl Hirten (b. 1956)

Sung by all

from MISSA SIMPLEX by John Karl Hirten.

The Presider continues with the prayer.

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace. But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love.

Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people. Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation.

Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: “Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.” As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:
People Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ’s Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with Most Holy Mary, the Godbearer, Blessed John and all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

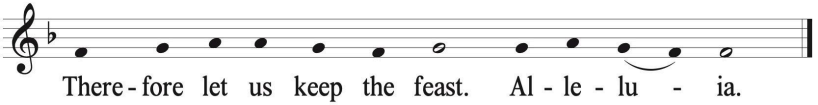

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever.
People AMEN.

Lord's Prayer
Presider
And now as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say:

Presider and People
Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Breaking of the Bread (S-152) Ambrosian Chant, adapt. Mason Martens (1933-1991)

Choir Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

Administration of Communion
To receive communion please come forward and receive a piece of the consecrated bread from the priest. If you need a gluten free wafer please indicate that to the minister. If you would like to receive the common cup, please help guide the chalice so you may drink from it. If you prefer not to receive communion, you are welcome to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your preference by crossing your arms over your chest.

Communion Music Zion hears the watchmen's voices Johann Sebastian Bach
Sung by the Choir. (1685-1750)

Zion hears the watchmen's voices,
With gladness all her heart rejoices,
She eager wakes to greet the day.
See, her Lord from heav'n descending
With grace and truth and power unending,
Her day-star dawns with brightest ray.
O come, thou blessèd One, Lord Jesu, God's own Son.
Hosianna!
We follow there Thy feast to share,
And taste the joys beyond compare.

Postcommunion Prayer
Please stand.

Presider Let us pray.
Presider and People
God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one
with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth
in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

Blessing
The presider offers God's blessing.

Birthdays, Anniversaries and Occasions of Thanksgiving
All those celebrating birthdays, anniversaries and occasions of thanksgiving are invited to come forward. Afterwards, all say:

Today, tomorrow and always we rejoice in the hands of God.
May God's powerful hands support you.
May God's guiding hands lead you.
May God's loving hands enfold you.
We rejoice in the hands of God. Amen.

Hymn 620 Jerusalem, my happy home Land of Rest
Sung by all.

1 Jerusalem, my happy home,
when shall I come to thee?
When shall my sorrows have an end?
Thy joys when shall I see?

2 Thy saints are crowned with glory great;
they see God face to face;
they triumph still, they still rejoice
in that most happy place.

3 There David stands with harp in hand
as master of the choir:
ten thousand times would one be blessed who might this music hear.

4 Our Lady sings Magnificat with tune surpassing sweet, and blessed martyrs' harmony
doth ring in every street.

5 Jerusalem, Jerusalem,
God grant that I may see thine endless joy, and of the same partaker ever be!

— F. B. P. (circa 16th cent.), alt.

Dismissal

Leader Go in peace to love and serve the Lord! Alleluia! Alleluia!

ANNOUNCEMENTS

From the Rector Search Committee This coming month the Rector Search Committee will be facilitating small group listening sessions within the parish. These conversations help us test and deepen what the Holy Cow! parish survey revealed as we prepare to call our next rector at St. John's.

To recap the survey results, four top goals were identified: reaching new people and welcoming them into the life of the church, attracting families with children and youth, strengthening pastoral care for people in times of need, and deepening our generosity in support of the church's ministry.

Search Committee members have reached out to schedule with active ministry groups within the parish and are hosting congregation-wide listening sessions this Sunday, November 8, and next Sunday, November 15. The congregation-wide sessions will take place after each of the three Sunday worship services, in the Youth Room after the 8am and in the Fireside Room after the 9am and 10am. There will also be Zoom sessions scheduled for parishioners who aren't able to attend an in-person gathering, dates and times to be announced.

Below are the questions that will frame our discussions:

- What is unique about our church?
- Why do YOU come to church here?
- As a faith-based community, where should our congregation be heading?
- What might be holding us back?
- What skills, talents and characteristics will be most important in our next rector?
- What else have we missed in this discussion that we need to consider for the next rector?
- How do we want to be challenged as a community?
- And lastly, think of a word or two that describes St John's. We will gather these words to create a "word cloud" for our parish profile.

The information gathered in these discussions aid in the preparation of written documents that tell the story of our congregation to prospective candidates. Thank you all for your participation.

Calendar note: The church and office will be closed on Wednesday, November 11 in honor of Veteran's Day.

Prayers for Our Country: This Sunday "He went to a quiet place, and there he prayed" (Mark 1:35). Join us as we pray for fair and peaceful elections, and for healing and justice in the US and the world. Please come to the Youth Room right after the 10am service.

Dinner Church: This Tuesday All are invited to supper and a discussion for session 3 of our fall series, Spiritual Fitness Training 2.0. This time we'll be exploring how to wake our spiritual brains. We gather in the parish hall on Tuesday, November 10 from 6-8pm. We ask for a $10 donation per person to cover the cost of groceries. The final session of the series will be December 8.

Men's Group: November 14 The Men's Group will welcome our new Interim Rector, Rev. Jane Gould at our next breakfast meeting on Saturday, November 14 at 8am in the Fireside Room. We will also have a member of the St. John's Search Committee join us to listen to our thoughts, hopes, and dreams for the church and our next Rector. RSVP's requested but not required. mensgroup@stjohnsross.org

Youth Confirmation Class: November 15 Youth Confirmation Class begins this month. We meet a couple of times a month on Sundays at 11:30am to explore together what it means to live a life of faith in the Episcopal Church, culminating in Diocesan Confirmations at Grace Cathedral on June 5. Youth of all ages are invited (many choose to take the class while in 8th grade). For more information or to sign up, please contact Rev. Heather.

Annual Hat Drive Deadline: November 22 The San Rafael Street Chaplaincy will distribute the hats at their Thanksgiving event. You're welcome to include small gifts, toiletries, or cards along with your donation. Please drop off to the church office lobby. You can help by purchasing hats to donate, donating gloves or socks, or knitting or crocheting hats

Advent Quiet Day: December 5 Take a spiritual break from the hectic holidays with a day of quiet on Saturday, December 5, 9am-2pm at St. Columba's, Inverness. Please email parishioner Anne Doyle to sign-up.

Christmas Pageant: December 13th. All children are invited to participate in our Christmas Pageant! Every child will have a special role. The first rehearsal is Saturday, December 5th at 10:30 AM in the church. To sign up and receive more information, please email Children's Ministry Director Sandra Pathik.

Women's Bible Discussion: Mondays All are invited to join us as we explore Paul's Letter to the Galatians. No preparation required. We meet weekly on zoom, 7:30-8:30pm. Please contact Rev. Heather for more information.

Bible Study: Wednesdays AND Thursdays We will be exploring what the Bible says about how we welcome new Christians into our community through baptism, and the Biblical roots of the promises we make as individuals and as a church when we make and reaffirm our baptismal vows. We will be meeting at our usual Wednesday 1pm time in the Youth Room, and if that time does not work for you, please join us instead at 6:30pm on Thursday in the Youth Room. The material will be the same for the two classes each week.

Christian Classics Lite: Thursdays All are invited to participate in the second season of our weekly reading and discussion program facilitated by parishioner David Kinney and Rev. Heather. This session's focus is the spiritual disciplines. The group meets in the Youth Room on Thursdays,11am-noon. On November 5 we will discuss "Service" and on November 12, "Confession." Email Rev. Heather or David Kinney for more information.

This Sunday at 10:00 AM. Sunday School will be combined in the Garden Room, next to the Youth Room. Children from preschool through 5th grade are welcome! They will join their parents in the church for Holy Communion.

Sunday Morning Youth Group On most Sundays, all youth (grades 6th-12th) are invited to meet in the Youth Room at 10am. (Youth are always welcome in church, too!) For more information, please contact Rev. Heather.

Music Notes J.S. Bach spent the final 27 years of his life working as the Kantor in the city of Leipzig. One of his duties was writing and performing a full multi-movement cantata every week at St. Thomas Church, the main church in the city. “Zion hears the Watchmen’s Voices” is the fourth of seven movements of his Cantata 140 (“Wake, awake, a voice is calling”). The chorale tune is sung in fragments throughout the piece alternating with a separate unrelated melody. Bach would later turn that movement into an organ piece which he intended for publication. It is one of his more well-known works.

The text “Jerusalem, my happy home" is taken from a long poem found in the British Library and dating from 1616. The poem is thought to be a variant of one found in a 1585 publication called The glass of vaine-glorie. The author of the poem is uncertain, but it is thought to be a Roman Catholic priest by the name of Francis Baker. The later version comprises 26 stanzas of which 1, 6, 12, 22, 23 (combined with 25) are used in the Hymnal. The tune Land of Rest was originally found added to a collection of “shape note” hymns entitled The Christian Harp (1832). The original name of the tune was Longing for Home and was paired with a text beginning “O land of rest, for thee I sigh!” The harmonization of the tune (which first appeared with the “Jerusalem” text in the 1940 Hymnal) is by Annabel Morris Buchanan (1888-1983) and was originally printed in her Folk Harmony of America (1938) with the heading “Heard as a child from my grandmother, Mrs. S.J. Foster.”
